Why Castoria?

YEARS ago Castor Oil, Purgative, Drops and Soothing Syrup were the remedies in common use for infants and children; Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing strong taste, yet really to stupefy the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.
It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, receiving the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.
A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy so safe for herself, without consulting a physician.
Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher

Mount Pleasant Warden Has Most Effective Fire Organization in State

Special to The Courier.
HARRISBURG, June 22.—Forest Fire Warden E. C. Myers of Mount Pleasant has perfected a forest fire fighting organization which is the most effective in the state, according to the Pennsylvania Department of Forestry. Warden Myers has organized 12 companies of fire-fighters, each in charge of a captain, in various parts of his territory. The companies have been trained intensively, so that each man knows his place in his duties when a fire call comes in. District Forester V. M. Beaker of Lionier, says that Warden Myers' fire fighters are so efficient that they usually locate and put out the flames before the warden reaches the scene.

Department of Forestry. Forester Beaker declared that the forest fire occurred in the Forbes State Forest district this spring. He estimates that 12,400 acres have been swept since January 1. Twenty-seven fires burned over areas larger than 100 acres. Lloyd Dunsmuir, David Dunsmuir and Walter Pike of Somerset county have been convicted of setting fire to woodlands in that county. They were sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and fines ranging from $5 to $20. The Freedom Coal company of Johnstown has paid $174.55 to the Department of Forestry to cover the cost of putting out a forest fire that was started by sparks from an engine operated by that company in Westmoreland county.

YOUNGWOOD WILL HAVE STAR TEAM

The cream of Westmoreland county baseball players will represent the Youngwood Baseball club here on Saturday. The Westmoreland county players are combining to win from the Dockers and an aggregation of stars will be at Fayette Field this week-end.

The new Coker pitcher, Pickett, who it is said is a real "find," will probably be on the mound. There will be little other change in the lineup.

Whitely looked for two good games on the fourth of July, local enthusiasts will get a look in on the team that is to be one of the three in the Fayette-Westmoreland league, which season opens on July 6.

Junior's Ned's South Side playground team, who played Stumbaugh's Orono club grounds out at Fayette Field yesterday morning. The youngsters batted the ball freely. The final score was 8-5. The South Side and North End teams were scheduled to play this morning. The score by innings was:

Amerson 110 210—5
outh Side 205 011—8
McCormick and Nixon; McManis and Burkett.

Although the management of the Independent, cancelled a game with the Juniata Independent, it is in a humor to hook up with a good country team. Such a team that would give the locals a good game, opens the manager, is the Juniata Independent. This team has the support of Charles McCloskey and is playing good ball. The countywide Independent were easily defeated by the Smoke team, which in turn was beaten by the Collegians. This gives the local fans a little done on their ability.

The W. W. class of the United Brethren church defeated Jim Warder's All Stars at sixty acres last night by the close score of 8-7.

The Pittsburgh Pirates pulled a little farther into the lead of the National League yesterday by rallying in the twelfth inning at Cincinnati and defeating that club 10-9. New York lost to Boston at the same time.

The First Presbyterians and Baptist played at Fayette Field tonight.

The Continental No. 3 baseball club, after a game with the local club, has defeated most of the teams in southern Fayette and is now looking for a game on something more difficult. For games call Uniontown, 6252, Ring 6, Bell phone or address James J. Fortway, Continental No. 3, Uniontown, Pa.

There is something wrong with the day during which several homers aren't registered in the big leagues.

The 14th must be Walter Pipp's lucky day. He cracked out his first homer of the season on April 14, and his second on May 14.

Shortstop Tom Stevenson of the Minneapolis team became disgusted with his own work last week, packed his grip and started homeward.

One of the notable comebacks of the season was that of the veteran Bill McKenzie, who is going great guns for Minneapolis.

Walter Christensen, new outfielder from the New York Yankees, got away with the Joplin team. He is complimented for his swiftness of play as well as his hitting and fielding ability.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 23, 1931.

SHOWING OUR APPRECIATION OF THE FIBREMAN.

In reference to public sentiment, which opposes the exhibition of the traveling street carnival in the city, the volunteer firemen some time ago announced their intention of abandoning the engagement of such enterprises as a means of raising money to provide for the expenses incident to attendance of the firemen at the annual convention of their district organization.

Assurances having been given the firemen that they should not lack funds for this purpose, in case the carnival was placed under the ban, the obligation was assumed by the people of the city to assist in providing the funds. The work of raising the necessary amount is now in progress under the very capable direction of Mrs. Katherine Wallace. She is receiving the cooperation of business men and citizens generally to such extent that the success of the undertaking seems certain. It will be if every person solicited does his full share.

Aside from the satisfaction of faithfully performing their duty at fires, the annual outing is about the only compensation the volunteers receive. They are justly entitled to it, hence there should be such a degree of willingness on part of the people of the city in making this outing possible as will show to the firemen that their services are very highly appreciated as their decision to cut out carnivals is heartily commended.

THE COAL INQUIRY.

Persons other than producers of coal should have an interest in the bills now before the Senate which have the government regulation and control of the industry as their object and purpose. Never before in the history of attempts to bring an industry under the arbitrary domination of a governmental body have such drastic regulations been proposed. They will apply not only to the production, sale and distribution of coal by operating companies both large and small, but every consumer of 100 tons or more per year will be subject to an investigation scarcely less burdensome and equally violative of the rights of private individuals.

During the war emergency the public gained an experience from the interference of government in business which ought to have made it plain to the members of the Senate that the people do not favor paternalism and regulatory legislation with reference to every line of private business. A reasonable scheme of control is desirable and will be acceptable to both coal producers and the public, but when measures are proposed which create an expensive governmental commission with an army of employees authorized to inquire into every detail of the business affairs of corporations and individuals engaged in an industry supplying a great public need, and thereby add unnecessarily to the cost of the commodity to every consumer, the limit of reasonableness in regulation is too far exceeded. That is why the so-called "Coal Industry Stabilization Act" will go hence its enactment and approval should be opposed, not alone by every producer and shipper of coal, but by every consumer.

The increase in the cost of production, which are multiplying because of conditions incident to modern methods of mining, the maintenance of high wage rates, advances in freight rates and other causes, are themselves adding heavily to the burden the coal consuming public has to bear. Weighing the industry down with an expense of approximately $35,000,000 per year through the establishment of a regulatory and inquisitorial body having practically unlimited powers, will create a condition akin to wartime with respect to costs and taxation. A proposal of this kind should be resisted with such earnestness and determination that the Senate will be forced to give heed to the sentiment its contemplated action has aroused.

Negro Shoots Policeman.
 CHICAGO, June 23.—Two policemen were shot and seriously injured early today when they attempted to question three negroes, one of whom was killed. A short time later by other officers. A second negro said to have participated in the shooting was captured. The injured policemen were reported in a critical condition.

Fayette City Miner Dies.
 PITTSBURGH, June 23.—Harry Hoffman, a coal miner of Fayette City, died at a hospital here, early today from injuries received on Monday last, when he was caught in a fall of slate in a coal mine at Fayette City.

Controlling The Press

The Editor & Publisher.

The charges that the leading newspapers of the country are controlled by the interests of that, and that most of them are subservient to the interests of the industrial and financial trusts, are as old as the newspaper industry. Because of their influence in the business, political and social life of the nation, they have been and always will be objects of attack. Every black-leg, swindler or thief who has been shown up by the press, every hypocrite who has been unmasked, every criminal whose record has been published, is the natural enemy of the newspapers and industriously circulates charges of this character.

Politicians whose trickery and subservience to bosses have been made public by the dailies and country weeklies take particular delight in making vicious attacks upon them in their stump speeches. Authors and writers who have failed to succeed or whose productions have been severely criticized by the press find that they can attract attention to themselves by accusing the newspapers of criminal acts of every conceivable nature. They have no difficulty in obtaining a hearing among members of the press and other organizations to which they belong.

There are, doubtless, among the 25,000 newspapers and magazines published in the United States a few that are not honest, just as all men are not honest, but the rank and file are above suspicion. During the past 25 years not a single newspaper of standing has been convicted of bribery or fraud although during that period numerous investigations have been made of their editorial and business relations with the public.

Newspapers are "controlled" but the control is vested in the men who own them and who have a right to exercise that power. It is an axiom in the world of journalism that no newspaper can achieve permanent success that is not devoted unselfishly to the service of the community. A newspaper that is run for the purpose of manipulating stocks, for furthering political ambitions of its owner, and for "working" the public for the benefit of private personal interests is soon discredited. Its utterances are regarded with suspicion, it loses public confidence and when it loses that it might as well shut up shop and go out of business unless it repents of the line and has sufficient capital to keep going long enough to win back what it has lost.

Newspapers must be honest, must be fair, must serve the community if they would become moulders of public opinion and builders of business prosperity.

GARDENING.

My neighbor has a garden fair and all the bees are neat and trim. But he has hired a stranger's hand to come and do the work for him. He walks among the shrubs and vines and proudly he admires them there. But, he, who's come to know the "foster" must give a garden rest state care.

My patch of ground is not so large but I know every rose by name. And I have watched the peonies grow since first the pink shoots upward came.

No stranger's hands have raked my beds and loosed these few plants of mine. I have nurtured every shoot and guarded every trailing vine.

My neighbor has a garden fair and all his bees are neat and trim. But all the blossoms that are there are merely pretty flowers to him. He never knows the fight for life, struggling little rose bush makes. Nor sees the new shoots spring up, because, he never goes or trims.

I have no hired man to till or trim my garden for me. I'm time to break the sun-baked ground and water every plant and tree. I'm time to fight the weeds and pests and give my roses constant care. But I get more than blossoms gay, for I know every flower that's there.

A PLACE.

Young man, eager to rise in the world, Mark to the little tell.

Never put hand to the least command Unless you will do it well.

You must strive for speed, but speed is vain. If poorly the work be done, And the time you take for a good job's sake, In time will appear, my son.

I have known the world and the ways of men. And the things I tell are true: You must build your fame on an honest base, And the work that you can do.

Whatever you promise you must perform. Never utter a pledge absurd. By the faith you keep you shall soon find, You must stand to your given word.

The kings of the world are posted clear. But the wrong way's thick with doubt. And day or night, if you keep to the right, You never need fear about.

If you gladly toil and you give your best, To the tasks you had to do, If your record's clear, you need have no fear. The world has a place for you.

DEPRESSION IN COKE IS COMPLETE; COAL ALMOST STATIONARY

Former But 15 Per Cent of the Same Week Last Year; Latter Holds Close to $5,000,000 Tons.

Production of bituminous coke in the United States was but little changed during the week ended June 11, and the industry remained in a state of complete depression, says the United States Geological Survey's weekly report. The total output was 50,000 net tons, a decrease from the preceding week of 1,000 tons and but 15 per cent of production in the corresponding week in 1929.

Cumulative production during the calendar year to date stands at 3,251,000 net tons, or not quite a third of that in 1929.

Production by states, compared with the corresponding week of 1929, was as follows:

	1931	1929
Pennsylvania and Ohio	11,000	255,000
West Virginia	3,000	27,000
Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia	7,000	16,000
Vermont and Kentucky	5,000	27,000
Colorado, Oklahoma and New Mexico	2,000	8,000
Washington and Utah	2,000	7,000
U. S. Total	35,000	400,000

Production of soft coal remains practically stationary at around 8,000,000 tons per week. Judged the output in the week ended June 11, the slightly below the 8,000,000-ton mark for the total, including lignite, is estimated at only 7,345,000 tons. Compared with the 8,168,000 tons produced in the latest full-time week, May 25-28, this was a decrease of 823,000 tons.

Production of bituminous coal during May, 1931, was approximately 23,250,000 tons, an average of 1,510,000 tons per working day. The following table shows the cumulative production in each year to May 31, during the past eight years:

	1931	1929
1931	18,000,000	175,000,000
1930	15,000,000	150,000,000
1929	12,000,000	120,000,000
1928	10,000,000	100,000,000
1927	8,000,000	80,000,000
1926	6,000,000	60,000,000
1925	4,000,000	40,000,000
1924	2,000,000	20,000,000
1923	1,000,000	10,000,000
1922	500,000	5,000,000
1921	250,000	2,500,000

Operation on Girl Reveals Piece of Iron She Carried In Hip for Fifteen Years

egal, Struck by Missile in Explosion.

FIREWORKS CONTRACT AWARDED

New Castle Firm Will Supply Display
for Mount Pleasant's Fourth of July Celebration; Galley Reunion at Dawson Fair Grounds August 24.

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, June 23.—On Tuesday an operation was performed at the Memorial hospital on Miss Olive Heilein, 23 years old, of near Donegal,
by Drs. D. L. Newell and Spurgeon DeVaux and a piece of iron 1 1/2 inches square was removed from her hip.

Fifteen years ago at the Heilein
home near Acme, Miss Heilein's grandfather, George Bruner, who was going to shoot stumps, put dynamite in the oven to dry. The dynamite exploded and shattered the stove and house. Miss Heilein was showered with bits of the stove and ashes. She was treated and it was thought that all the foreign substances had been removed. The left hip gave her trouble and at the place where the trouble was seated the bone was scraped but this failed to give relief. In Tuesday's operation it was discovered that a piece of the flying metal from the stove had been buried in her hip along the bone. The iron was removed. Miss Heilein is getting along nicely.

Fireworks Contract Let.
The contract for the fireworks for the Fourth of July has been let to Cott & Lawton of New Castle. Mr.
Lawton is a former Mount Pleasant resident. In addition to the regular display purchased Mr. Lawton will give to the town a set piece representing the late Captain James A. Zundell.

JOY BROUGHT INTO HOME

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Restoring
Mrs. Benz to Health

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We have had six children die almost at birth.
From one hour to nineteen days all they have lived. As I was going to have another, I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old, and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says, 'That is some healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show this letter."—Mrs. C.
W. Benz, 151-3rd Ave., Altoona, Pa.

No woman can realize the joy and happiness this healthy babe brought into the home of Mrs. Benz, unless they have had a like experience.

Every woman who suffers from any ailment peculiar to her sex, as indicated by backaches, headaches, bearing-down pains, irregularities, nervousness and "the blues" should not rest until they have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE MONEY CHANGERS"—A vivid and gripping drama, featuring an all-star cast, is being shown today at the leading attraction. Love, high finance, romance, big business, politics and adventure! The brilliant splendor of New York's highest society intertwined with her mysterious underground, little-known Oriental underworld, business world and concealed behind brick walls and chop suey palaces. Those are the elements that build "The Money Changers."

New York's upper and lower social stratification the background for this colorful drama of those who market the souls of weak men and women for gold. It is a high-class melodrama in which figure the rich man who is the underworld king, a fighting newspaper reporter, a weak and wayward girl, another girl who effects the evil of ill-gotten money by deeds of charity, a reformed crook, a Chinaman with self-sacrificing love for a white girl, a loving mother and a hero-wor-shipper.

"The Beach of Dreams" will be shown Friday and Saturday.

THE ORPHEUM.

"THE ROUND UP"—A six-act picture, featuring Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, the genial comedian, is the feature today, Friday and Saturday.
"The Round Up" is a capital story of the Southwest and there are thrills

When Baby has the Colic, and the poor little sufferer cries out with agony in Mother's arms and refuses to be quiet,

DR. HAND'S Colic Remedy

will quickly soothe the pain and bring relief and rest. The wise mother has a bottle in the house always ready for emergencies.

What a Mother says:

"Our three-month-old baby had the Colic so bad we had to scold the floor with him all the time. We tried everything we could think of. Nothing seemed to do him any good until we tried your Colic Remedy, and in five minutes he went to sleep. I know it gets credit for his sleep and will recommend it to any mother."

apiently in the action. The scenes are laid in Apache land and in the development of the plot, Indians, renegades, frontiersmen and young women
are employed in vast variety.
The theme is one of self-sacrifice and as a result the climax is highly dramatic. It is safe to say that Mr.
Arbuckle as the sheriff does some of the most effective work of his screen career, and his complaint that "nobody loves a fat man." Insofar as he is personally concerned, is a fallacy.
The scenes of "The Round Up" are laid in Apache land and, as might be expected, the dramatic element is not lacking. There are some scenes of unusually strong heart-appeal, while the thrills which accompany them hold one as by a magic spell.

TOWNSHIP PEOPLE SEEK ANNEXATION TO THE MILL TOWN

Petition Presented by Citizens of East Huntingdon to Scottsdale Council.

TERRITORY IS WELL POPULATED

New Fire Alarm Soon to Be Installed; Blukery Street Residents Ask to Have Thoroughfare Graded; Other News of Busy Council Session.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, June 23—Annexation of a part of East Huntingdon township was considered by council at a meeting Tuesday night at which time a petition praying for annexation was presented. It was signed by a large number of the people of the territory located to the south of the borough line in Drowsstown.

The territory is well built up and the proposed addition is laid out on a regular plan as to streets and alleys. Council directed that a committee composed of the members of the body, the street commissioner, the engineer and the solicitor investigate the proposal.

J. O. Landenberger asked for permission to place a gas filling plant in front of his place of business on Broadway. This was granted, subject to the approval of Burgess E. G. Fretts and to be put in under the supervision of the borough engineer.

The residents of Hickory street from the south side of George street to Anderson Run asked to have the street graded. It was decided to grade according to the front foot rule. Bids will be asked.

A bill of lading was received from the Federal Electric company for an electric street, the order for which had been placed some time ago. The street is to be given 30 days' trial. It was decided to hold over all bids for other fire alarm systems until this alarm had a trial.

An ordinance to open, widen, straighten and grade Homestead avenue to 40 feet, from Loucks avenue to Elm street, passed the second reading and council members were notified that the third reading would be called July 1.

Son in Fletcher Home. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fletcher of Emerson avenue are the parents of a son, born Tuesday. They now have a family of four.

Tickets for Lambing Dinner.

It is necessary that an intelligent idea be secured as to the number likely to attend the testimonial dinner being served Rev. M. A. Lambing on Tuesday, July 15. Therefore the general committee has decided to have numbered tickets printed for those contemplating being in attendance. Thus the approximate attending number will be known. Father Lambing's friends who are not his congregationists, as well as members of his parish may secure tickets from any member of the committee.

Band Concert Friday.

The 112th free band concert by the Grand Army band will be held at Loucks park Friday evening, June 24, at 8 o'clock. J. H. FURTHER STEPS MARK DOWNWARD COURSE OF COKE PRODUCTION

List of Plants and Ovens Out of Running is Again Increased.

BUT 23 OUT OF 148 ACTIVE

Many of These Only Nominally So, Some Drawing a Few Ovens Only Once a Week; No Signs of Change for Better Are Not Discernible.

From The Weekly Courier.

Further steps, represented by the closing out of more ovens and consequent reduction of output, were taken last week in the downward course of coke production in the Connellsville region. Two hundred and fifty ovens were added to the completely idle list, cutting the number of coke producing plants down to 23 out of 148, 12 of which are in the Connellsville and 11 in the Lower Connellsville district, five being furnaces and 18 merchant operations.

These figures do not tell the whole story because very few of the 23 nominally active operations are making anything like full time and some are drawing coke only one day out of six. That the entire output of coke production has dropped off 3,200 tons to 29,820 tons shows better than the statistics as to the number of plants in running the extent to which coke production is narrowing down towards the vanishing point. This process has continued with such regularity during the past three months that the trade has come to regard weekly curtailments as quite in the natural order.

Every effort is being made to hold production within the limits of the very much restricted demand but despite these efforts some unconsumed coke has accumulated. The number of consumers who are taking coke as made being so small, and becoming smaller from week to week, a state of almost complete stagnation in the trade has developed. A few plants at which reasons exist for uninterrupted operations at least in part, without regard to market conditions, continue to run a few ovens, drawing them once or twice a week and stockpiling the coke.

Observers are scanning the horizon from day to day alert to detect the presence of some sign betokening a change in the situation, but no sign is visible not even one that can be interpreted as a promise that a halt is soon to be called in the progress, toward still more complete suspension of activity. Unlike previous seasons of dullness in coke which were relieved by activity in coal, the operators equipped for handling both forms of fuel find the coal market in practically the same shape as the coke market. Demand simply does not exist except in so limited a way as not to form a market in the usual acceptance of the term. Buyers manifest no disposition to make bids and still less to place orders of sale contracts. Aside from a little railroad fuel and restricted shipments, to public utilities and by-product plant's the movement of coal is almost negligible in comparison with other seasons.

In some quarters the outlook is regarded rather gloomily. A picking up is expected toward the end of the summer, but the hope some producers indulge of a clamor for coal early in the fall, with rising prices, is not shared by their more pessimistic brethren who have convinced themselves that much less coal will be consumed than during any previous fall and winter for a long period of years. The coke producers are less despairing, believing that after a very slow drag during the summer months trade will brighten with the coming of early fall and they will in part forget the long lean days that have been becoming longer and leaner since the tide began to recede early in March. The estimated production of coke during the week ending Saturday, June 13, was 29,820 tons, credited to the two districts as follows: Connellsville, 13,840, a decrease of 580 tons; Lower Connellsville, 15,980, a decrease of 2,490 tons, or a total decrease of 3,170 tons as compared with a decrease of 2,370 tons during the preceding week.

By inference the production was: Furnace, 11,500 tons, the same as last week; merchant, 18,320, a decrease of 3,170 tons, as compared with decreases of 600 and 1,770 tons respectively during the week ended June 11. The idle ovens list was increased by 250 ovens, Ovens No. 3, 50 ovens, and Allison No. 1, 200 ovens, having ceased to produce coke. The H. C. Frick Coke company still has 150 ovens in partial operation at Hostetler, all other plants being out of blast.

COKE TRADE SUMMARY.

The course of the coke trade, both in the matter of production and price, continues downward. Last week witnessed another of the successive reductions in output tonnage and the addition of more ovens and plants to the non-producing list. But 23 out of 148 plants are making a pretense of running, five of the independent furnaces and 18 of the merchant interests. These operations are more or less nominally active, practically none of them making a six-day schedule and some of them drawing coke but once or twice a week, some to add to their stock piles instead of loading into cars.

Production fell off 3,200 tons to 29,820, a new low record in the long string of low records established since the depression assumed the acute stage about three months ago. Watchers in the trade are waiting for a change for the better but the signs refuse to become visible, not even a promise appearing that a halt is soon to be called in the progress toward still more complete suspension of activity.

Stagnation prevails in the market a sale of furnace coke being a rarity. Buyers make no bids and producers make no offers. A sale of coke for miscellaneous purposes was made at $3.30, some at $2.75. Foundry dumped another 25 cars, now running at $2.50 to $3.00. The iron is even duller, with price off 50 cents.

HEAVIER CALL FOR STEEL WILL FOLLOW STOCK LIQUIDATION

By Jobbers and Manufacturing Consumers: Production Now Less Than 25 Per Cent.

Special to The Weekly Courier. NEW YORK, June 22.—The American Metal Market and Daily Iron & Steel Report will review the steel and iron trade tomorrow as follows: Price cutting and price declines in steel products are required in quarters where a long range view is taken as constituting a side-show. The principal performance involves the liquidation of stocks of steel held by jobbers and manufacturing consumers, and the distribution of stocks of manufactured goods, including agricultural implements, hardware, cutlery, machinery and various other lines.

When these stocks are liquidated there will be a heavier call for steel even if the general industrial activity of the country has not increased. An improvement in this respect is to be expected by August or September, and at the same time there may be an improvement in the general industrial and commercial situation. If so there will be a double influence upon the steel industry, which has ample room in which to respond. Steel production is now at between 20 and 25 per cent of capacity and is likely to be at about 15 per cent in July. If distribution of stocks adds one-half to the demand by September 1 and industrial activity causes a separate increase of the same proportion there will be a 25 per cent operation at the beginning of September. The trade hardly expects more than a 50 per cent operation at any time during the balance of this year.

When buyers are in position to take hold the price of steel will be an important factor and price reductions at that time would probably be stimulating. Several steel interests that are large but apparently not very influential at the moment, would prefer reduction until the effective time, but some sellers have become impatient and one product after another is likely to yield in price. Responsibility for price reductions cannot be fixed, as each seller who reduces his price points to other sellers as having cut prices first. Sheets are off about $5.00 a ton following the recent decline of like amount in wire products and in no important line is there a stable price. Prices would yield more readily and would be more clearly defined if there were a moderate amount of business going.

FEWER IDLE CARS

First Week of June Showed Total Down to 389,224, Decrease of 6,000.

Another decrease in the surplus freight cars of the country was noted by the report of the American Railway association for the period June 1-8.

In this period the daily average surplusage was 389,224 and the daily average shortage was 449, against a surplus of 304,040 and a shortage of 339 in the last eight days of May. The surplus of gondolas in the period June 1-8 was 115,778, box cars 147,656, hoppers 46,257 and coke cars 10,150.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH THE SKIN

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Good for Women, too. Foley Cathartic Tablets have long been a favorite physic with women. Women suffer as much as men do from indigestion and constipation, and they also require a scientific remedy to keep the stomach sweet, the liver active and the bowels regular. Mrs. Geo. Powers, 34 Winthrop avenue, Revere, Mass., writes: "I have taken Foley Cathartic Tablets and I recommend them to everyone." They banish biliousness, headache, bloating. Sold every where.—Advertisement.
